

ZARATE

Located at Km 107 of Parana River. Has an important commercial activity and several industries; among them chemical and beer industries. There is also a car factory.

The main terminals are, from west to east:

TERMINAL LAS PALMAS (Km 123): Private multipurpose terminal owned by Molca SA. Initially dedicated to river craft and tug/barge operations and as from March 2007 initiated operations as a grain terminal.

Type of berth: Dolphins with outlying moorings.

Frontage: 100 m

Maximum LOA: 230 m

Datum depth alongside: 10,30 m

Cargo suitability: Petroleum; Petroleum by products; Chemicals.

Port facilities: Tanks; Pipeline.

VITCO (Km 112,6): Private terminal owned by Vitco SA., dealing in home trade, imports and exports of crude oil, petroleum by products and chemicals.

Type of berth: Dolphins with outlying moorings.

Frontage: 70 m

Maximum LOA: 135 m

Datum depth alongside: 9,14 m

Cargo suitability: Petroleum; Petroleum by products; Chemicals.

Port facilities: Tanks; Pipeline.

TZ – TERMINALES PORTUARIAS (Km 111): Private cargo port belonging to Murchison Group operating with containers and Ro-Ro vessels. The port has 2 specialised terminals (cars, containers and general cargo). Operations at both terminals are round the clock. Total area of the terminal, 143 hectares with 1000 m river frontage divided in two areas.

BERTH Nº 1:

Type of berth: Jetty.

Frontage: 382 m

Maximum LOA: 230 m

Datum depth alongside: 10,60 m

Cargo suitability: Vehicles; containers.

Port facilities: Gantry crane; Crane; Container yard; Warehouse; Reefer plugs.

BERTH Nº2:

Type of berth: Dolphins with outlying moorings.

Frontage: 250 m

Maximum LOA: 209 m

Datum depth alongside: 10,60 m

Cargo suitability: Vehicles.

Port facilities: Warehouse; Open storage.